

F. K. Siddiky

- A highly experienced leader with over two decades of proven track records of success and achievements in strategic Human Resource Development & Management functions (starting from scratch – planning to implementation in diverse cultural, high stress and security context) in MNCs, Int'l Org and Diplomatic Missions, in the country and abroad.
- Besides HRD&M, having expertise and successful track records (from the stand point of senior management position), in broad-based operational matters, e.g., gen-administration, legal/statutory and social/technical compliance issues, project mgt, representation on company matters, etc.
- An individual with high degree of adaptability/ empathy, results-driven approach and relentless in pursuit of excellence from business and organizational standpoint. Believes in transparency, commitment and teamwork.
- Earned remarkable accolades on numerous occasions, at corporate and personal level, in and outside the country, for achieving corporate objectives.