

Personal details

Mohammad Aslam ♂

Nationality: Bangladeshi

Marital status: Married

No. of children: 2

Father's name: Late M.A Mannan

Mothers' Name: Anwara Begum

Tel + 8801713015117 (Address in Bangladesh 7/2 Ring Road, (BDDL Apartment 1- B-3) Shamoli, Dhaka 1207- Bangladesh)

Contact details Email mdalsam8888@gmail.com, skype aslam20093, cell phone +8801713015117

Key qualifications and experience /job summary:

A strategic planner, a leader and a seasoned manager of complex humanitarian, transition and long term development programs /projects in complex societies torn apart by wars, conflicts natural disasters or chronic poverty and injustice. Vastly experienced in Organizational Development, Change management, Planning, Operations management with diverse teams and groups. Vastly experienced in partnership management, proposal writing, fund raising, social research, representation and dealing with highly demanding donors. Well versed in the technical areas of Humanitarian core values and principles, Education/EiE, child protection, youth development, Advocacy, livelihoods, camp management, emergency and humanitarian programming leading to sustainable and resilience building programming. Key doctrines of mine include, quality and result focused, excellence, cost effectiveness, accountability, nearality, participation/engagements and team working and have deep interest in Social research fields.

Over 30 years successful career paths, I have worked for Save the Children USA and UK as sector Directors, with Christian Aid as its Country Director for Bangladesh, with Deloitte LLP USA as Country Manager for Bangladesh, with Practical Action (formally known as ITDG) as Programmes' Manager for Bangladesh, with UNDP/ILO as National Consultant, with UNICEF as Program Specialist in Nepal, with Islamic Relief and Muslim Aid (UK) as a Country and Regional Directors for East and Horn of African Region, with War Child (UK) as Country Director and with Concern WW as regional coordinator Afghanistan. My recent assignment was to analyze key hindering factors leading River Halda and its wider basin losing its natural health conditions and devise bankable strategy/[proposal to reverse/restore lost natural health of the River Halda and livelihoods of the riparian communities, awarded by UNDP Bangladesh. In my long career paths, have worked in Bangladesh, Afghanistan, Tajikistan, Nepal, East African region, such as; Kenya, Sudan, Ethiopia and Uganda.

Formal education and training; followed by BA, a post graduate diploma in Development Communications followed by a MSS in Development Study (Development Policy Evidence and Practice. Sociology, Anthropology and the Development Conundrum, Development Economics, Empowering Society, Research methodologies, Competing in the Global Economy, Democracy and Development, Policy and Program, Health Nutrition and Development, Governance of Violent conflict and (In)security, Public Finance, Poverty Conflicts, violence and : Political Economy of International Development Assistance, Climate change, Policies implementing, Gender and development, Impact Evaluation etc) were the major modules) from University of Lund in Sweden. Besides, I have had several short training I also have attend many short training courses on project planning, theory of change, monitoring and evaluations, research methodologies, group management, budget development and control, distance management, humanitarian programming/ DRR,, proposal, gender and development/empowerment and report writing, communications, security management and Sphere standards, humanitarian programming, CRC, risk management, procurement etc.